Palos Verdes & Portuguese Bend Landslide Map

Rancho Palos Verdes: the City's 2025 Greater Portuguese Bend Landslide Complex boundary, abatement districts, and City GPS survey movement, Sept. 3 to Oct. 6, 2026

Unofficial map by PVLandslide.com, not an official City of Rancho Palos Verdes map. Approximate; not for parcel or legal decisions.

Map key

- Complex boundary (City, 2025)
  Regulation line, not a movement outline
- Abalone Cove district (ACLAD)
- Klondike Canyon district (KCLAD)

City GPS survey, Sept. 3 to Oct. 6, 2026

- 1 inch/week or more
- 0.5 to 1 inch/week
- Under 0.5 inch/week
- No movement detected
  at the 95% confidence level (surveyor's call)

Moved per the spreadsheet: 53 of 102 points
(the surveyor's report counts 55);
fastest AB59, about 1.48 inches/week.

Landmarks

1 Abalone Cove Shoreline Park
2 Wayfarers Chapel (former site)
3 Portuguese Point
4 Inspiration Point
5 Del Cerro Park
6 Portuguese Bend Reserve
7 Klondike Canyon (mouth)
8 Portuguese Bend Beach Club
9 Seaview
10 Hesse Park
B Peartree Lane (2023), separate slide
C Flying Triangle (Rolling Hills), separate slide
D Ocean Trails / Landslide C (1999), separate slide

Not an official City map. Lines are approximate, not survey-grade; not for parcel, legal or engineering decisions. A GPS point's movement is one survey monument, not a property assessment. To check a property, use the City's Landslide Area Map Address Search (linked from rpvca.gov/1426) or its Landslide Area Development Regulations map (rpvca.gov/1841). Evacuation zones: PVPready.gov.

Sources: City of Rancho Palos Verdes GIS (lines, retrieved Oct. 11, 2026); City GPS survey spreadsheet by McGee Surveying Consulting (survey M99; inches/week calculated by PVLandslide.com); basemap USGS The National Map. Interactive map and full point table: pvlandslide.com/map · PDF made Oct. 29, 2026